

Job Description: Quality & Compliance Engineer

Job Purpose

The candidate will work as part of the Edge department supporting the “Head of Edge Development” with the implementation and maintenance of the Octo Telematics devices product portfolio documentation and procedures, including Spice automotive quality processes.

Key Responsibilities

- Compliance management of the entire Octo device fleet and of new devices
- Implementation of automotive quality standards for the development of the SW: A-Spice
- Management of technical proposals on new automotive customers: OEM e TIER1
- Management of quality issues on client projects.

Specialized Knowledge And Required Skills

- Knowledge of A-Spice processes and their implementation;
- Knowledge of ISO 26262 functional safety and its implementation;
- Excellent knowledge of V-Model embedded development processes (waterfall);
- Knowledge of embedded systems with ARM microcontroller.

Preferred Skills

- Quality Engineering with more 5 years of work experience into automotive OEM or automotive TIER1 companies;
- Electronics Engineering (microsystems);
- Knowledge of FMEA failure analysis methods;
- ISTQB certification (or equivalent);
- English proficiency;
- Excellent team working capability.